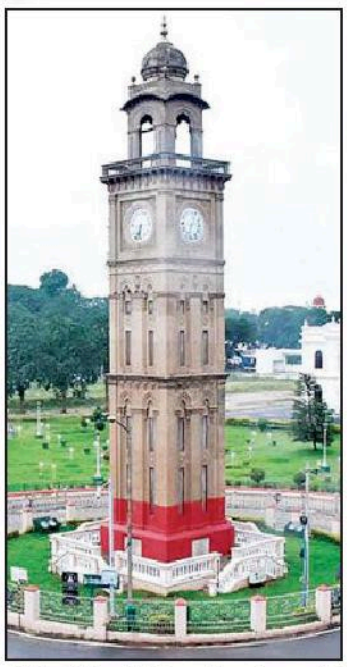
Dodda Gadiyara renovation works begin with Rs. 43 lakh

- Rs. 75 lakh to restore Government Guest House Arch Gate
- Arch on Lalitha Mahal Road to be translocated by 30 feet



MLA K. Harish Gowda, along with MCC Commissioner Ashaad-ur-Rahman Shariff, Corporator R. Nagaraj and Mayor Shivakumar, performing 'guddali puja' for the restoration of Dodda Gadiyara this morning, as Deputy Mayor Dr. G. Roopa, Prof. N.S. Rangaraju of District Heritage Conservation Committee and others look on.

Mysuru, Aug. 9 (RK&BCT)- The restoration process for Dodda Gadiyara, also known as the Silver Jubilee Clock Tower, constructed in 1927 near Rangacharlu Memorial Hall (Town Hall) in city, commenced this morning.

This iconic 75-foot-tall structure has shown cracks that raised concerns about its heritage value and safety. Cracks have emerged even in the vicinity of the bell located at the tower's pinnacle. For the past 30 years, the 5.5-foot bell, weighing around 920-kg and of French origin, has remained silent.

N'gud woman attacked on Mysuru-Chennai train

Assailant enters unreserved ladies' compartment

Mysuru, Aug. 9 (RK&BCT)- In a shocking incident that occurred on the night of Monday, Aug. 7, aboard the Mysuru-Chennai Kaveri Express near Kengeri, a 43-year-old woman endured a terrifying ordeal as an assailant attempted to rob her, leaving her severely injured. The incident took place around 10.40 pm in the ladies' compartment.

The victim, identified as V. Gayatri, a resident of Nanjangud in Mysuru district, was travelling alone on her way to Chennai, where she works as a Lower Division Clerk at the Tamil Classical Institute.

Following the incident, Gayathri promptly reported it to the Government Railway Police (GRP) Station in Mysuru, with her husband Mahesh accompanying her. The GRP authorities have duly registered the FIR and subsequently transferred the case to the Bengaluru City GRP Station.

As per the victim's statement, Gayatri was en route to Chennai for a Court hearing. However, due to the attack, her journey had to be cut short, and she returned to Mysuru. The assailant's attempt to rob her, targeting her money and gold chains, resulted in a brutal confrontation during which Gayatri sustained severe injuries.

Her husband Mahesh recounted the incident, stating, "My wife was asleep when the man attempted to steal her chain. When she resisted, the man brutally assaulted her."

Railway sources revealed that Gayatri was travelling in the unreserved ladies' compartment since her e-ticket for the Kaveri Express was on the waitlist. Despite the presence of a few women in the compartment, she found herself alone after the Ramanagara Station.

Mysuru-Chennai Bullet Train land survey begins

Mysuru/ Bengaluru, Aug. 9 (Agencies)- Anticipation is mounting as the High-Speed Rail project, colloquially referred to as the Bullet Train, gains momentum in linking Mysuru, Bengaluru and Chennai. The successful completion of the land survey from Chennai to Kolar marks a significant step forward.

The National High-Speed Rail Corporation Limited (NHSRCL) is overseeing this ambitious 435-kilometre project that promises to revolutionise travel between Mysuru and the two Southern State Capitals.

Currently, the intensive land survey operations are in full swing, paving the way for the imminent commencement of the aerial survey phase.

NHSRCL has entrusted a Hyderabad-based firm with a pivotal role in conducting comprehensive satellite, aerial and land surveys. Once these surveys conclude, the next significant milestone involves the creation of a meticulous and intricate Comprehensive Project Report (CPR), breathing life into this groundbreaking vision.

Years ago, the groundwork for this highly anticipated high-speed rail network was laid by NHSRCL. After exhaustive ridership analysis, NHSRCL thoroughly explored various high-speed routes, with the Mysuru-Chennai route emerging as a leading contender.

At present, the fastest rail option between Bengaluru and Mysuru is the Vande Bharat Express, completing the journey in approximately two hours. Similarly, this train takes around 4.25 hours to traverse the route to Chennai. A conventional train journey takes over 10 hours to travel between the two cities, with Shatabdi reaching a maximum speed of 110 km per hour.

The groundbreaking high-speed corridor envisions a significant reduction in travel time between Mysuru and Chennai, cutting the journey to just 1 hour and 10 minutes for the 435 km distance.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Our energies are dissipated by negative traits — notably ill temper, lethargy, recklessness etc. To derive the optimum fulfilment in life, we should avoid frittering away our energies in inefficacies. The sensation of 'anger' is the most deleterious and also the most widespread waste of energy. Unable to restrain ourselves when angry, we insult and annoy others by hurting their feelings. The outburst depletes our stamina disproportionately. In the aftermath, we have to spend our energies on mollifying and placating those our anger was directed against. Repentance and guilt also chip away at our strength. Instead of wasting our energies in outbursts, we should preserve and deploy our stamina for positive outcomes. Angry overreaction always ends up in damaging denouement.

Another domain where we squander our energy is that of eating and drinking. Food, if eaten more than the requisite quantity, starts giving diminishing returns. If we eat beyond the saturation point, our energies are overspent on digesting the same. Gradually, we become overweight, which makes us less energetic. Consuming alcohol in excess wastes our precious time in coping with a hangover. A balanced diet is important for optimising energy. Food is the source of energy; junk food is not.

We also waste energy by not doing a job in the right way at the first attempt. We commit errors if we are not focussed on the task at hand. Much energy is unnecessarily wasted on rectifying the mistakes and doing the same work again and again. We should do all our work with concentration and awareness. If we do our tasks perfectly at the very first attempt, we can save a lot of energy and time. We should cultivate focus, attention and concentration on the task at hand. Not only will the task be done at the first attempt, but the result will also be qualitative.

Missed opportunities also waste our energies. We let go of opportunities because we are not prepared to seize them. Our lethargy and lack of preparedness stop us from grabbing them. We have to wait for the next opportunity. We become frustrated by repeatedly missing opportunities as fulfilment is delayed or even denied. Having to try again and again for the same goal dissipates our energies.

The more energy we fritter away, the less fulfilled we are.

Dead monk 'smiles' as his body is exhumed

Bangkok: Incredible images show a 'smiling' deceased Buddhist monk being exhumed by his dedicated followers months after he died.

Revered monk Luang Phor Pian died on November 16 last year in Bangkok, Thailand when he was 92-years-old. Originally from Cambodia, Pian spent the majority of his life serving as a well-known spiritual and Buddhist guru in Lopburi, central Thailand.

When he died, his body was returned to the temple where he served for burial. However, when his followers removed his body from his coffin as part of a traditional Buddhist ceremony, they were shocked to discover the corpse had barely decayed and he appeared to have a 'smile' on his face.

His body appeared in a state consistent with somebody who had been dead for no more than 36 hours, local media reported. Pian's peaceful state has been described as a sign that the monk has truly reached nirvana. The monk's followers continued to pray for him until a final resting ceremony was held on the 100th day of his death.

Ensure efficiency in QR code plan for water bill payment

Sir,

This is in reference to the SOM report (July 23) on QR code to pay water bills 'MCC to launch QR code for easy water bill payment'. The way a faulty QR code system was implemented for Property Tax is a shining example of mismanagement and inefficiency.

If money was spent on implementing a QR code system, it should have been utilised effectively to benefit a significant number of properties. It is disheartening to see such projects not reaching their intended targets and, as a result, wasting resources.

Indeed, adopting online systems for various bills, such as water, property tax and electricity, can lead to cost-saving and greater convenience for the consumers. Similar to the existing process for electricity bills, implementing an online payment system for water bills can make the payment process more streamlined and accessible.

Holding Revenue Officers responsible for ensuring bills are paid is a crucial step in ensuring accountability and timely payment. If consumers fail to pay their bills, appropriate actions, such as disconnecting the water connection, should be taken to enforce compliance. This will not only ensure prompt payments but also discourage defaulters from evading their responsibilities.

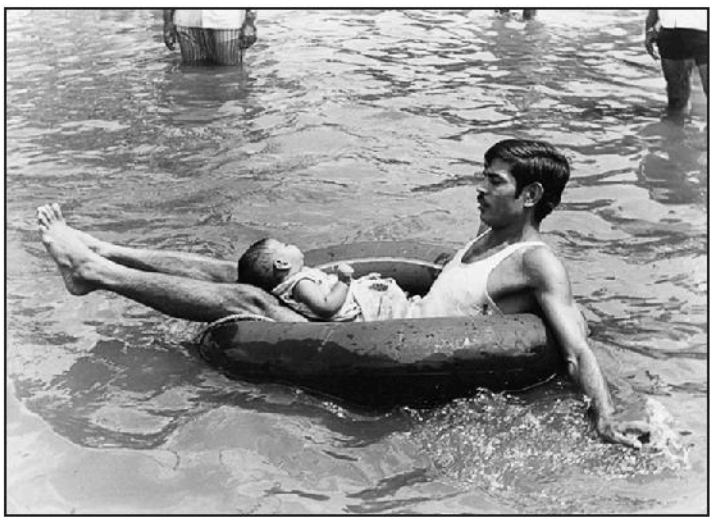
According to a press release from MAP, the expo titled 'With great ease: The photography of T.S. Satyan' is an exhibition that highlights Satyan's photographs of politicians, refugees, workers, hospitals, schools, across the country and also contact sheets, articles written by Satyan, his first camera, which his English Professor helped him to buy.

The exhibition seeks to look beyond Satyan's photo-journalistic work and reframes him as a photographer who deeply cared about the people he photographed, more than the frame and composition.



Flash Floods, Delhi, 1970, Silver gelatin print, PHY.10165, Gifted by the T.S. Satyan Family Trust.

His photographs show the empathy with which he looked at people, with kindness and admiration. His photographic style was marked by an effortless fluidity, his images were not meticulously planned or overly staged, instead reflecting honesty and genuine curiosity.

As one of India's earliest photojournalists, Satyan saw the lens as an unbiased recorder, who went on to capture some of the country's most important historical milestones.

"Satyan's photographs breathe life into the fleeting moments, capturing the delicate nuances of human connection and vulnerability. Known as a photojournalist, and to celebrate his centenary, this exhibition explores a different side of Satyan — that of a photographer with an unique view and authorship," says Kamini Sawhney, Director of MAP.

Lactation-related issues can be identified, treated

Mysuru, Aug. 9- "Breastfeeding is nature's gift every mother is bestowed with, to nourish her baby with all the nutrients essential for their growth and development of the baby. Generally, breastfeeding came naturally to almost every mother, but in recent times owing to several factors, there has risen a need where it now 'needs to be taught'. Many mothers are now experiencing lactation-related issues which are easily identifiable and treatable if the mother receives timely guidance," said Dr. Shaheen Akhtar, Consultant Obstetrics and Gynaecologist, Manipal Hospital, Mysuru.

She was addressing a press conference, organised by Manipal Hospital as part of World Breastfeeding Week, at Pathrakartara Bhavan in city recently.

Taking the topic further, Dr. K.G. Amulya, Obstetrics and Gynaecologist, Manipal Hospital, Mysuru, who also spoke, said: "Lactation education or counselling is not a 'one size fits all' strategy. Every mother is different, and their needs and concerns are also different. Addressing the concerns and issues with lactation should ideally begin prenatally (before the delivery). Identifying and addressing problems with lactation while the woman/ women is pregnant can greatly help rectify problems such as breast-related problems that may affect the latching and sucking of the breastmilk by the infant, counselling working women to manage stress, educating them on expressing and storing the breastmilk, etc., help the mothers to be well prepared for lactating."

Gynaecologist Dr. Amulya seen addressing the press conference as (from right) senior Physiotherapist Ismail, Lactation Counsellor Vinutha, Gynaecologist Dr. Shaheen Ahktar and Senior Dietician Kavya look on.

Senior Physiotherapist K. Ismail spoke about the bodily changes women undergo during pregnancy and after delivery and how he helps women deal with the issues with their body morphology, muscular weakness or body pains post-delivery and during lactating period.

Senior Dietician Kavya emphasised on the importance of proper diet and nutrition for the lactating mother and said, "Proper nutrition is of utmost importance for the lactating mother. There are several cultural and age-old beliefs about avoiding certain foods during lactation. The lactating mother may end up developing serious nutritional deficiency. If the mother has nutrition deficiency, baby might develop deficiency as well. Eating a healthy diet while breastfeeding determines the energy, protein, fat, vitamins and mineral content of the breastmilk."

Hence, Manipal Hospital, Mysuru, has come up with an exclusive baby and mother care package that involves expert guidance to expecting mothers right from the beginning of their pregnancy journey, delivery, post-natal and lactation period, the baby's infancy stage and beyond, to ensure a healthy, safe and happy pregnancy journey and motherhood. Expecting mothers can consult Manipal Hospital, Mysuru, or call Ph: 0821-2555000 for details.

Rs. 1.94 cr. for desilting drains

Permanent illumination of MCC main building at an estimated cost of Rs. 2.7 crore; Mayor approves proposals amid din by JD(S) Corporators

Mysuru, Aug. 9 (SBD&BS)- Mayor Shivakumar approved works to desilt drainages in city at an estimated cost of Rs. 1.94 crore during the Council meeting of Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) last evening.

Amid the din by Janata Dal (Secular) (JD-S) Corporators, who staged a protest by trooping into the well of the Council Hall and also gheraoed Mayor, for restraining them from airing their opinions at the meeting, Mayor Shivakumar, who made a mention of three additional proposals passed off them with his consent at the Council meeting.

The additional proposals were brought before the Council meeting, as during the previous meeting the Corporators had demanded for hiring three assistants to each of the wards for the maintenance of storm water drains. It was tabled before the Council to directly recruit the assistants for 68 tractors used for cleaning works and 200 loaders on outsource basis.

However, Corporators — former Mayor Ayub Khan, M.U. Subbaiah, M.V. Ramprasad, Satish, Ashwini Ananthu, SBM Manju, Bhagya Mahadesh, Shanthamma and several others, who spoke about the related issues in their respective wards, insisted on tabling the revised subject.

In this wake, following the instructions of Mayor Shivakumar, a proposal was prepared for desilting the drainages in the city at an estimated cost of Rs. 1.94 crore, with the Health Wing of MCC taking up the task. This follows the concerns over the health of the people, if the 2,364 km long drainage line in city is not cleaned on time.

JD(S) Corporators gherao Mayor Shivakumar during the Council meeting at Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) yesterday.

Mayor Shivakumar chairing the Council meeting as Deputy Mayor Dr. G. Roopa and MCC Commissioner Ashaad-Ur-Rahman Shariff look on.

Besides, the Council also gave its nod for several other proposals including the permanent illumination of the main Office of MCC at an estimated cost of Rs. 2.7 crore.

Corporator J. Gopi questioned as to why the action against stray cattle is being taken only at Ittigegud and Bandikeri, ignoring the menace in other localities. Another Corporator K.V. Sridhar who raised a similar issue said, "The stretch of Outer-Ring Road (ORR) from Kesare to Satagalli Bus Depot is dotted by stray cattle and horses, which has even caused accidents, with a two-wheeler rider sustaining injuries.

Corporator SBM Manju reiterated that "There are large scale irregularities in the tenders awarded for the maintenance of parks in the city, as some of the contractors have bagged the tender in a package form. He also found support in fellow Corporators Ashwini Ananthu and Prema Shankare Gowda.

Corporator R. Shanthamma warned of staging a protest with Pourakarmikas if the bonus of Rs. 7,000 announced for the Pourakarmikas on account of Pourakarmika Day was not given at the earliest.

Corporator Ayub Khan urged to declared the radius of one-km around Mysore Place as Dust Free Zone and the whole of city as Plastic Free, in view of Dasara festival.

Organisations stage protest in city against atrocities on women in Manipur

Mysuru, Aug. 9 (PM&TRR)- Activists of Christians Progressive Organisation (Christhara Pragatipara Samsthe), in association with All India Human Rights organisation staged a silent protest yesterday by holding placards and demanded stringent punishment to the culprits who had raped and paraded a woman naked in Manipur and restoration of Law and Order.

They strongly condemned the atrocities inflicted on the minority tribal Kuki community including women and the burning of more than 250 Churches in Manipur.

They regretted that more than 150 people lost their lives due to the ongoing violence in the region and demanded that President's rule be imposed in the State immediately. Incidents in last four months at Manipur have lowered the dignity of India, they alleged.

President of the Christians Progressive Organisation Jnanaprakash, Hon. President Vinod Chacko, Patron Purushotham, Vice-President Paulballi Graham, Rajanikant, Joint Secretary Vinod, organiser Chandrashekar, SDPI leader Rafat Ullah Khan and others participated in the protest.

Meanwhile, activists of Kannadambe Rakshana Vedike also staged a protest in front of Mahatma Gandhi statue at Gandhi Square yesterday, saying that the incident and the continuous violence that is going on unabated in Manipur has lowered the image of India at the international level.

The protestors urged Prime Minister Narendra Modi to intervene, ensure stringent punishment to the rapists and demanded the dismissal of Manipur Government for its failure to maintain Law and Order in the State.

The protestors also urged the Karnataka Government to immediately order a probe by Special Investigation Team (SIT) into the rape and murder of Sowjanya.

Vedike President Rajashekar led the protest. Leaders Kumar, Kikkeri Kiran, Lokesh, Pradeep, Nanjunda, Suresh and others participated in the protest.

Open Town Hall parking in a fortnight: Mayor

MCC to launch a dynamic QR code system for water bill payments next week

Mysuru, Aug. 9 (RK&BCT)- Following widespread public outcry regarding the significant delay in completing Town Hall Multi-Level Parking facility, Mayor Shivakumar conducted a site visit and directed the officers and contractors to swiftly conclude the project within a fortnight.

Initiated back in 2011, the ambitious parking complex's construction has spanned 12 years, and to date, it has been utilised solely for temporary purposes during the Dasara festival since 2018 and closed later.

The Mayor issued explicit instructions to the officers and contractors to open the parking facility for public use within the next 15 days, as only minor tasks remain pending. Key aspects such as the implementation of the pay-and-park system, security measures, entry and exit amenities, and resolution of waterlogging issues in the basement have been successfully addressed. The Mayor emphasised that the remaining minor tasks must be executed on a fast-track basis. Specifically, tasks involving the installation of fire extinguishers and safety equipment, electrical finalisations, and minor civil adjustments for the restrooms need to be completed.

In the 2022 Dasara, only first floor was operational. However, for the upcoming Dasara, both basement and first floor will be accessible for parking, according to the Mayor's announcement. Due to extensive delay in project completion, its expenses have significantly risen. Originally budgeted at Rs. 10.86 crore when conceptualised in 2011, the project now carries a revised tender of Rs. 18.28 crore due to heightened material costs and design alterations.

Spanning an area of 6,000 sq. ft., the Multi-Level Parking Facility can now accommodate approximately 400 cars and 200 two-wheelers, as per the latest estimates. This marks a reduction from the initial projections of 600 cars and 200 two-wheelers due to design adjustments.

QR code payment system

Meanwhile, Vani Vilas Water Works (VVWW), the water supply division of Mysuru City Corporation (MCC), is set to introduce a dynamic QR (Quick Response) code payment system for water bills by the following week.

With this impending system, each consumer's water bill will feature a QR code, enabling swift payments within seconds. Mayor Shivakumar and MCC Commissioner Ashaad-ur-Rahman Shariff are expected to inaugurate the system next Monday or Tuesday.

Under this new method, consumers can conveniently scan the QR code using Android or iPhone apps such as Google Pay, Amazon Pay, Bhim and PhonePe. Once scanned, the bill details will appear on the screen. By selecting the 'pay' option, the payment amount will be automatically debited from the linked bank account, completing the entire process in mere seconds.

Subsequent to payment, the consumer will receive payment confirmation on the screen and through an SMS notification.

The funds paid will be credited to the MCC's designated bank account.

PFA organises field clinics for horses

Mysuru, Aug, 9 (BCT)- People for Animals (PFA), Mysuru, in collaboration with World Veterinary Services, Ooty, successfully organised a field clinic dedicated to equine health in Mysuru on Aug. 8. The event witnessed the participation of 36 horses, each receiving vital care, including deworming, vaccinations and treatment for hoof injuries. The locations covered included stables near Suburban Bus Stand, Old RMC and Kukkarahalli Lake.

In addition to these treatments, horse owners also received invaluable guidance on maintaining proper hoof care, encompassing cleaning and grooming techniques. As part of their commitment, the clinic distributed complimentary supplements to the horse owners, further bolstering their animals' well-being.

Continuing their benevolent efforts, a free horse camp is scheduled for today in Srirangapatna. This initiative aspires to extend crucial services to horse owners, encompassing free deworming, vaccination supplements and specialised wound dressing ointment.

Furthermore, on Aug. 10 in Mysuru and Aug. 11 in Srirangapatna, World Veterinary Services will conduct an illuminating farrier workshop designed explicitly for Tonga owners. This workshop holds the objective of refining farrier skills and enriching participants' knowledge about comprehensive horse hoof care techniques.

MP seeks funds for exclusive OPD Block at K.R. Hospital

Mysuru, Aug. 9 (BCT)- Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha met with Union Minister for Health and Family Welfare, Chemicals and Fertilisers Mansukh Mandaviya in New Delhi yesterday. The purpose of the meeting was to request financial assistance from the Government to build a dedicated Outpatient Department (OPD) Block in the premises of K.R. Hospital.

During the meeting, Simha emphasised that MMC&RI holds the distinction of being the nation's seventh oldest Medical College and the first in the State to achieve a centenary milestone. He pointed out that BJP Govt. had allocated Rs. 89 crore for the restoration of the historic hospital buildings and these works are currently in progress.

Presently, the lack of a centralised OPD Block forces patients to navigate across the extensive expanse of K.R. Hospital, known as 'Doddaspathre.' Compounded by the heavy influx of patients, some OPD counters are even unable to provide OPD slips due to the overwhelming demand. To mitigate this issue, a proposal has been put forth to consolidate all OPD services and diagnostic labs under a single roof, effectively reducing congestion in the main hospital area.

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha in discussion with Union Minister Mansukh Mandaviya in New Delhi yesterday.

During the interaction with the Minister, Simha conveyed plans to invite Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the Union Health Minister for the forthcoming centenary event. The MP envisioned a historic occasion where the ground-breaking ceremony of the OPD Block could coincide with the centenary celebration. This event would attract former MMC&RI students from around the world, creating a momentous gathering.

Recognising the pressing need, MMC&RI has formulated plans to streamline OPD services by centralising them within K.R. Hospital. Currently, hundreds of patients queue separately each day to receive treatment.

Wait times during OPD hours often exceed an hour due to the immense workload on hospital staff, who strive to cater to the needs of 1,500 to 1,800 patients daily. The situation is particularly challenging on Mondays, as there is no OPD service on Sundays. To address these issues, MMC&RI has prepared a DPR outlining the estimated cost of constructing the OPD Block, pegged at Rs. 80 crore.

Simha urged the Minister to allocate funds for this project. The State Medical Education Department is currently in the process of submitting the DPR to the Health and Family Welfare Ministry for evaluation and consideration, the MP said.

A ridership study occupies a pivotal position in the project's timeline, playing a crucial role in shaping its trajectory. The study will analyse demand estimation for the route, and the traffic data will yield valuable insights into projected demand and ridership for this ambitious high-speed rail connection.

Similarly, data collected over the past five years from Toll Plazas along the Bengaluru-Chennai Highway, along with simultaneous rail and air travel data, will collectively inform the study's conclusions.

The study will draw information from various data sources, including inputs from both Governmental and private bus operators, as well as vehicle registration records spanning the previous five years. The study outcomes will play a crucial role in shaping the Bullet Train's fare structure, using insights from the Willingness To Pay (WTP) factor.

The study aims to compile a robust dataset, gathering no fewer than 6,000 valid samples. This information will be sourced from key locations, including long-distance upper-class trains, bustling airports, busy bus terminals and strategically located Toll Plazas.

The insights drawn from this extensive collection will undoubtedly propel the relentless progress of the Mysuru-Bengaluru-Chennai Bullet Train project.

Previously, a German team submitted the final feasibility report for the Chennai-Bengaluru-Mysuru Bullet Train to the Railway Board, affirming the project's feasibility and viability.

The report recommended a maximum speed of 320 kilometres per hour for the Bullet Train. The actual distance from Mysuru to Chennai is over 485 kilometres, while the Bullet Train corridor will be 435 kilometres. Going by the train's speed, it can cover the 145 kilometre distance from Mysuru to Bengaluru in just 45 minutes.

Woman attacked in train

It was during this vulnerable moment that the assailant managed to enter the compartment before the train reached its next stop.

The assailant succeeded in stealing Rs. 500 from Gayatri as she resisted the robbery attempt. The criminal hastily disembarked from the train at Kengeri. Shockingly, there were no Railway Protection Force (RPF) or GRP personnel present at the scene to provide immediate assistance to the victim.

Only after a delay of 20 minutes, upon the train's arrival at KSR Bengaluru City Railway Station, did Gayatri receive the urgently needed medical attention, according to sources.

Divisional Railway Manager, Bengaluru Division, Yogesh Mohan, acknowledged the shortage of security personnel assigned to each coach.

He mentioned that the CCTV footage from Kengeri Railway Station would aid the Railways in identifying the assailant. In response to the attack, security checks on all trains are being intensified, confirmed RPF Divisional Security Commissioner Soumyalatha.

The Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) is collaborating with the Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage to undertake the restoration of this historic landmark. The estimated budget for this project is Rs. 43 lakh. Despite promises from multiple previous Mayors and MCC Commissioners, the long-awaited project has finally been initiated.

The ceremonial ground-breaking was conducted this morning by Chamaraja MLA K. Harishgowda, with Mayor Shivakumar, Deputy Mayor Dr. G. Roopa, MCC Commissioner Ashaad-ur-Rahman Shariff, Prof. N.S. Rangaraju (retired Professor from the Department of Ancient History and Archaeology, University of Mysore and Member of the District Heritage Conservation Committee), Corporator M.D. Nagaraj, Development Officer Somashekar and others in attendance.

The Detailed Project Report (DPR) for the restoration of Dodda Gadiyara has been prepared by the Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage, with funds allocated by the MCC.

Heritage Arch Gates

This morning, it was disclosed to the press that the DPR aimed at restoring the Heritage Arch Gate at the entrance of the Government Guest House in Nazarbad, renowned as the heritage North Gate Arch, has received approval. Additionally, an estimated budget of Rs. 75 lakh has been formulated for this project. Currently, the tendering process is underway.

Similarly, the Arch Gates, situated along Lalitha Mahal Palace Road, will undergo translocation, moving them up to 15 ft. on both sides (total 30 ft.) to facilitate road-widening. Presently, this particular arch gate acts as a bottleneck for traffic, necessitating urgent expansion. Following the completion of the translocation, the arch gate will undergo renovation, the Mayor said.

Similarly, the MCC is preparing an action plan to restore the arch gate on Ashoka Road (Gunchi Gopura or watchman's tower near the Government Gunchi School) which leads to St. Philomena's Church from the Fountain Circle at N.R. Mohalla. Another gateway that will be restored will be the Maharani's College Arch Gate and these works will cost Rs. 3 crore and the process of DPR preparation has been set in motion, Mayor Shivakumar added.

Historical significance of Dodda Gadiyara

Referred to as Dodda Gadiyara, translating to big clock tower, this structure shares its location with the smaller Chikka Gadiyara or Dufferin Clock Tower, situated near Devaraja Market close to K.R. Circle.

The magnificent tower was installed by Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar in 1927 to commemorate 25 years of his reign, and hence, the tower was named the Silver Jubilee Clock Tower. Installed on August 8, 1927, the construction cost of this structure was Rs. 7,500, and its construction was completed within six months.

The tower is adorned on each side with inscriptions (now deteriorated) in Sanskrit, Kannada, English and Persian languages, detailing the clock's installation, date, month, year and more, in golden letters on marble stone.

Once audible from nearly two kilometres away, the clock's bell is silent now. In times past, the chiming of the clock served as a timekeeping beacon for many, especially since most households lacked clocks.

Home Minister has taken strict measure to enforce Law and Order: H.A. Venkatesh

Mysuru, Aug. 9 (SBD&TRR)- Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC) spokesman H.A. Venkatesh has said that the opposition parties are averse to the strict measures taken by Home Minister Dr. G. "Dr. Parameshwar is a senior politician of the State and has handled many portfolios efficiently. Now, he is the Home Minister and has given priority to maintain communal harmony across the State. He has corrected some of the mistakes committed during the previous regime and guiding the Home Department well. He has taken strong measures to maintain Law and Order in the State and also to control moral policing. Shivakumar from the list of chief guests in the revised invitation for the inaugural session of the two-day state-level Advocates' Conference on Aug. 12 in Mysuru, after an objection was raised about him sharing the dais with judges when there are corruption and money laundering cases pending against him.

Shivakumar has 19 cases against him out of which the central investigative agencies-CBI, ED and Income Tax department - are probing him in a few cases.

Chief Minister Siddharamaiah will inaugurate the event at which Supreme Court Judge Justice A.S. Bopanna, Karnataka High Court Chief Justice Prasanna B. WORD OF THE DAY

Bon vivant

Pronunciation: bahn-vee-VAHNT.
Meaning: A bon vivant is a sociable person who has cultivated and refined tastes especially with respect to food and drink.
Origin: English speakers have used bon vivant since the late 17th century to refer specifically to those who subscribe to a particular kind of good living — one that involves lots of social engagements and the enjoyment of fancy food and drink. This puts the term very much in the company of some other French words. Gourmet, gourmand, and gastronome all refer to those who love a fancy meal (though gourmand often carries the connotation of a tendency to overindulge). Bon appétit!
Example: "Le Magritte is a humble bar that gets everything right. The service is timely & perceptive, the cocktails... are subtle twists on spirituous classics that are delightful without trying to be centre of attention. The bar bites are truly buzzworthy, too... enough to leave any bon vivant smiling from ear to ear." —Tyler Zielinski, The (London) Evening Standard, 19 July 2022.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Better safe than sorry

Meaning: The common phrase better safe than sorry means that it is better to choose the safer option than the riskier one, because if you decide to go with the risky option, then you may later regret it.
Origin: The earliest known use of this proverb is by the Irish novelist Samuel Lover (1797-1868) who used it in his book Rory O'More (1837). Another form of the expression is 'better be sensible than sorry'.
As the saying goes, better safe than sorry! However, when it comes to safety, people do not always choose the safer option when it's available. For example, some people decide to leave their doors unlocked when leaving their home. "I live in a good neighborhood, it'll be fine," they reason. But how would they feel if they came back to a burglarized home? Obviously, they would regret their unsafe decision of not locking the door.
Another example is driving. Some people don't want to wear a seat belt in their car. Why? Maybe because they consider themselves to be a safe driver or they think wearing one is uncomfortable. Regardless, it's a big risk to take as any car accidents would be even more dangerous without a seat belt. Therefore, if two options are available — one safe, the other risky — it's probably better to pick the safer option, otherwise you might be sorry later on. Or as the expression puts it, better safe than sorry!
